Commas and Quotation Marks

BUMP

Directions

1. Mix up the cards and stack them in a pile face down. The first player reads a card and the choices and answers the question. If the player gets the answer right, he/she places a marker on the BUMP space with the same number as the task card he/she just answered.
2. If on a later turn, the same player answers another card with the same number as the first marker and the space is forever his/hers and cannot be bumped.
3. If there is only one marker on a BUMP space and another player answers a card with the same number, he/she can bump the first player's marker and place his/her marker on top of the other person's marker and the BUMP space is free.
4. The game is over when all of the cards have been answered.
