Context Clues

When we were walking on the beach we saw some people surfing. As we got closer, we noticed that a dog was wearing a tiny wetsuit and was surfing with his owner. Even though it was cool, it was really absurd at the same time.

Context Clues

My family went to an all-you-can-eat buffet at lunch time. My teenage brother filled his plate three times and didn't leave a single crumb. I don't understand how he can gorge himself but never gain any weight.

The word gorge means:

- A. a nap
- B. to eat
- C. a movie

Context Clues

Our class play was yesterday. It went really well for the most part but I felt sorry for Colby. In the middle of the performance, he tripped and knocked over the microphone, which knocked over a stage prop below it. I know he didn't mean to bungle the play, but I'm sure he still felt badly about it.

The word bungle means:

- A. perform badly on a specific job
- B. complete a task successfully
- C. make a mistake due to clumsiness

Context Clues
My dad's car got a flat tire and he didn't know how to fix it. We were fairly close to a small town so we decided to walk into town to find a mechanic. As we were crossing the street, I noticed a sign saying "Watch for quadrupeds." I asked my dad what that meant and he told me that we were pedestrians today.

The word quadrupeds means:
A. a four-legged animal
B. a person who walks on two legs
C. a person who walks on all fours

Context Clues
Our dog Duke is getting old. He spends most of the day sleeping on the sofa. If anyone wants to sit on the couch and watch TV, Duke doesn't even boogie. The only way he'll get off the sofa is if he wants some food or wants to go outside.

The word boogie means:
A. to change an opinion
B. to sit still
C. to get up
